Local and special

Oude Haegsche

A cheese for spice-lovers. This cheese is aged for 12 months, which gives it a full, spicy taste.

Het Groene Hart

'Het Groene Hart' is a peat meadow area located between Amsterdam, Rotterdam and Utrecht; in the Dutch Randstad.

Highland cattle

This cattle breed from the Highlands of Scotland is known for its long hairs and long horns.

Red Desire tomatoes

The Red Desire has a beautiful, deep red color and an intense sweet taste. The Red Desire is kept on its branch as long as possible for the best taste experience. Therefore, it contains a lot of nutrients.

MSC label

All our fish comes from the Scheveningen fish auction and has a MSC label. For the past 20 years, the goal of this certificate has been to keep oceans healthy and full of live. The blue label shows that the fish you are eating comes from a sustainable source.

Freygaard

This high quality beef is produced in the Nordics. The Finish beef production is based on old traditions of family farms.

World Steak Challenge

The World Steak Challenge is designed to compare the quality of beef production with other international competitors and thus create a quality mark that everyone can trust.
