MSC Label

Our fish comes from the Scheveningen fish auction and has a MSC label. For the past 20 years, the goal of this certificate has been to keep oceans healthy and full of life. The blue label shows that the fish you are eating comes from a sustainable source.

Lillie's Q BBQ Sauces

We serve the entire collection of this American award-winning BBQ sauce in our restaurant. We have chosen our favorite, called Carolina, which contains of apple and lime juices and tastes delicious with pulled pork, smoked chicken and ribs.

The Simmentaler beef

Simmental is a breed that descends from cattle breeds from the Middle Ages. Because of the wonderful life that the cattle have in Northern Europe, the meat is extra tender and full of flavor.

Iberico pig

The Iberico pig, also called 'el cerdo Ibérico', is a pig breed originating from the south west of Spain.

Antiboise

Antiboise is a lukewarm dressing made of tomato, capers and black olives. The dressing is named after the city Antibes near the French south coast.

Blue Stilton

Stilton is a crumbly cheese from the English regions of Derbyshire, Leicestershire and Nottinghamshire. The name Stilton is derived from a village of Stilton in Cambridgeshire, where the cheese was never produced.
